Creativity is a phenomenon whereby something new and somehow valuable is formed. The created item may be intangible (such as an idea, a scientific theory, a musical composition, or a joke) or a physical object (such as an invention, a literary work, or a painting).. Scholarly interest in creativity is found in a number of disciplines, primarily psychology, business studies, and cognitive ...

Trade generates efficiency gains. If we look at country-level data from the last half century we find that there is a correlation between economic growth and trade: countries with higher rates of GDP growth also tend to have higher rates of growth in trade as a share of output.. This basic correlation is shown in the chart below, where we plot average annual change in real GDP per capita ...
