A corporate resolution for a bank account is a statement listing the names of officers authorized to do business on the corporation's behalf. Corporations need bank accounts to create a separate holding place for money associated with their business, and banks must know who represents the corporation as they do business together.

What Is a Corporate Resolution for a Bank Account?

A board of directors is a group of people who jointly supervise the activities of an organization, which can be either a for-profit business, nonprofit organization, or a government agency. Such a board's powers, duties, and responsibilities are determined by government regulations (including the jurisdiction's corporations law) and the organization's own constitution and bylaws.
