The United States subprime mortgage crisis was a nationwide financial crisis, occurring between 2007 and 2010, that contributed to the U.S. recession of December 2007 - June 2009. It was triggered by a large decline in home prices after the collapse of a housing bubble, leading to mortgage delinquencies and foreclosures and the devaluation of housing-related securities.

Hi Heidi-Thank you, Thank you, Thank you for making this blog. I can't tell you how much this article has been helpful to me. I currently work as an ABA Tutor for a child with autism- and he's doing great- the only thing is that I can't understand very much of what he says because he doesn't pronounce certain sounds- and it all seems random.
