Islam and Catholicism Islam differs fundamentally from Catholicism in its views of God, Christ, and essential moral issues. As Muslim persecution of Christians increases in Pakistan, Egypt, Nigeria, Iraq, Indonesia, and elsewhere, and Muslims become more of a presence in the West, it becomes more essential for Catholics to understand this.

Islam began in the seventh century A.D. as a result of claims made by its prophet, Muhammad, to have received revelations from God. It would therefore be false to suppose that the existence of Islam is a "punishment" for Abraham's actions. For more information, I recommend reading the Catholic Answers booklet 20 Answers: Islam.

The question is a little difficult; Catholics are a bit in shock, and not only in France, after the barbarous assassination of Fr. Jacques Hamel - as you know well - in his church while celebrating the Holy Mass. Four days ago you here told us that all religions want peace. But this holy, 86-year-old priest was clearly killed in the name of Islam.
