Mentorship is a relationship in which a more experienced or more knowledgeable person helps to guide a less experienced or less knowledgeable person. The mentor may be older or younger than the person being mentored, but he or she must have a certain area of expertise. It is a learning and development partnership between someone with vast experience and someone who wants to learn.

Introduction. This listing will not be comprehensive because I had not been systematically collecting bibliographical citations since 1986. However, it depends to a considerable extent on the annual Bibliography in Imago Mundi (compiled meticulously by Francis Herbert up to 2004, then by Nick Millea, until Wouter Bracke temporarily substituted (2010-12), and by Nick Millea thereafter), on the ...
