Early in my DFIR career, I struggled with understanding how exactly to identify and understand all the RDP-related Windows Event Logs. I would read a few things here and there, think I understood it, then move on to the next case – repeating the same loop over and over again and never really acquiring full comprehension.

From the get go, many people would think that something like an overseas assignment or an overseas operation would involve the military. It certainly has a very army-like ring when spoken, but overseas assignment and operation can actually involve investigative services and the operatives that work for any investigative service.

Response to T. Colin Campbell. March 4, 2007. by Chris Masterjohn. In the spring of 2005, I wrote a review of Dr. T. Colin Campbell's book, The China Study. It appeared in the quarterly journal of the Weston A. Price Foundation, Wise Traditions, and is also available here. Since my review was highly critical of his conclusion that a vegan diet paves the road to vibrant health, the Weston A ...

[quote]yeah, I have a feeling, "proving his intent," is going to be a sticking point. Bullshit. First, the intent is blindingly obvious in every action Individual-1 has taken with regard to Putin and Russia, and in the lack of action in this area one would expect from a candidate and from the President of the United States.

The size of t is available to both the owner watermark and to the attacker. As long as t remains in the imperceptible region, there exists some t' use by the attacker where $l' = v + t'$ and there is no perceptible difference between l and l' . This attack may be used to remove or replace the t region. A variation of this attack is explored in [CMYY97] to the aspect of counterfeiting watermarks.
