The results were too close to predict in the days before the election. While the leave vote had increased in the Financial Times polls in the weeks prior to the vote, it seemed that the remain-side was strengthening in the few days before the referendum. 3 Thus the leave side had 50.6% in the polls taken on 17 June but had weakened to 48.3% on the day before the referendum.

1. Equal access to health care for im/migrants. Access to prevention and treatment should be "in proportion to need without discrimination" (); yet, as evidenced by the Affordable Care Act of 2010, the current system continues to exclude many immigrants, often based on assumptions of deservingness. The Affordable Care Act has expanded health insurance and access to many immigrants.
