Frequently Asked Questions - Tim Peake's Principia blog

In this article, the author highlights the importance of well-written and researched funding proposals. She has seen too many badly constructed proposals - peppered with irrelevant information and project budgets that could leave potential donors doubting the ability of organisations to use scarce financial resources.

Hi Claire, This depends on the questionnaire. If e.g. the questionnaire has say 10 questions and so for each student the total score is between 0 and 10 (where 1 codes a response that is positive to that teaching method 1 and -1 codes for a response that is positive for teaching method 2), then you could use a one sample t test (essentially equivalent to the two paired sample test) against the ...
