An aircraft is a machine that is able to fly by gaining support from the air. It counters the force of gravity by using either static lift or by using the dynamic lift of an airfoil, or in a few cases the downward thrust from jet engines. Common examples of aircraft include airplanes, helicopters, airships (including blimps), gliders, paramotors and hot air balloons.

If you Google "military base ghosts" you get about a million hits, so clearly hauntings are an armed forces epidemic. Not everyone who claims to have seen or heard a ghost on a military base is totally credible, but soldiers are trained to be fearless in the face of danger so you'd think level-headedness would win out over things that go bump in the night.
