Unemployment or joblessness is a situation in which able-bodied people who are looking for a job cannot find a job.. The causes of unemployment are heavily debated. Classical economics, new classical economics, and the Austrian School of economics argued that market mechanisms are reliable means of resolving unemployment. These theories argue against interventions imposed on the labor market ...

The Atlantic has an article decrying the fact that economists are refusing to give behavioral economics a bigger role in introductory economics courses. I'm going to argue that this oversight is actually appropriate, even if behavioral economics provides many true observations about behavior. The core ideas of economics are extremely counterintuitive and are not accepted [...]
